Geagte President,

DIE BOERE-AFRIKANERVOLK SE EIS OM SELFBESKIKKING

Die Boere-Afrikanervolksraad het aan u die geleentheid gebied om met ons in gesprek te tree oor ons volk se regmatige eis en aanspraak op territoriale selfbeskikking. U het klaarblyklik besluit om ons versoek tot gesprek daaroor te ignoreer.

Die geskiedenis van volke en state leer dat 'n kwessie soos die onderhawige nie verdwyn wanneer maghebbers dit ignoreer nie. Eweneens sal ons volk se aandrang op vryheid ook nie verdwyn nie; intendeel, dit sal toeneem.

Ons stel u in kennis dat ons nou voortgaan om met die middele tot ons beskikking en in ooreenstemming met die reëls van die Volkereg, te doen wat ons nodig vind om ons volk se nasionale vryheid te herwin.

Sou u later wens om die saak met ons te bespreek, sal ons dit in die lig van die dan heersende omstandighede oorweeg.

Die uwe,

A.E. Breytenbach
Voorsitter

Dear Mr. President,

THE BOERE-AFRIKANER PEOPLE'S CLAIM FOR SELF-DETERMINATION

The Boere-Afrikaner People's Council offered you the opportunity to commence with discussions regarding our people's rightful claim and entitlement to territorial self-determination. Apparently you decided to ignore our request to discuss this matter.

The history of nations and states demonstrates that issues like these do not vanish when rulers ignore them. Similarly our people's insistence for national freedom will not vanish; to the contrary, it will grow.

We hereby inform you that we shall now continue with the means to our disposal and in conformance with the rules of International Law to do whatever we find necessary to regain our people's national freedom.

Should you at a later stage wish to discuss the matter with us, we shall consider it in view of the then prevailing circumstances.

Yours sincerely.
